

Internship Opportunities with ProGeorgia

What is ProGeorgia:

ProGeorgia is Georgia's non-profit civic engagement table. It is a new way to create a state we can be proud of. We strive to become a state that takes care of its citizens and our beautiful natural resources.

ProGeorgia brings together the power of existing non-profit groups to work in a more strategic way, with new tools and technology, to change the policies of our state. ProGeorgia is building infrastructure by supporting, connecting, and coordinating civic participation efforts of our non-profit member groups. And ProGeorgia is implementing ways to win policy and electoral battles for progressive social change.

Who we work with:

Atlanta 9 to 5, Asian American Legal Advocacy Center of Georgia (AALAC), Equality Foundation of Georgia, Georgia Association of Latino Elected Officials (GALEO), Georgia Coalition for the People's Agenda, Georgia Conservation Voters Education Fund, Georgia Stand Up, Georgia State Conference-NAACP, Georgia WAND Education Fund, League of Women Voters of Georgia Education Fund, Planned Parenthood Southeast, Partnership for Southern Equity

Internship Responsibilities and qualifications:

ProGeorgia is dedicated to increasing civic participation in our state. We believe our democracy is stronger when every voice is heard. As a ProGeorgia intern you will provide support for a wide variety of civic engagement programs, learn valuable skills in community organizing, learn to use data to develop effective civic engagement plans, track activity to create reports, and assist in the development of communications materials.

Qualifications:

Excellent interpersonal skills,
Willingness to be a team player,
Bilingual English/Spanish is a plus,
Community organizing or civic engagement experience strongly preferred,

Dedication to progressive issues is a must!

Hours are flexible and can be worked around the intern's schedule. Interested applicants should send an email indicating their interest to tfranklin@progeorgia.org to set up an informational interview. To find out more about our organization visit progeorgia.org.