WAYS OF CONTRIBUTING AS A FACULTY AFFILIATE TO THE HONORS COLLEGE

Serve as a Departmental (or other Unit) Honors Coordinator
- Promote the Honors College to students and faculty
- Assist with recruiting potential Honors College students in your department’s service (Core) and elective, lower division courses
- Promote student involvement in faculty-mentored research
- Liaison with Honors College regarding course development and scheduling
- Work with your departmental undergraduate committee to develop an honors track in your major or an interdisciplinary Honors track across disciplines.
- Coordinate the University Assistantship Program in your department

Be a Professor of Record
- HON 1000 seminar or 3260 colloquium
- Any HON section of a course in the the core curriculum
- Any HON section of a course in a major, including add-on sections and dimensions.

Serve as a Faculty Reviewer for DISCOVERY, the Honors College Undergraduate Research Journal
- Majority of service occurs April through July
- Review submissions and provide constructive feedback to student authors

Sponsor an undergraduate researcher
- Assist your undergraduate researchers develop independent research for presentation or support an independent student researcher at the Georgia State University Research Conference.

Serve as a University Assistantship Mentor
- Mentor incoming Honors and university-wide scholarship recipients through the University Assistantship Program, in which students receive a stipend for participating on faculty-led research.

Serve as a thesis advisor
- Mentor a student through the process of thesis development, implementation, and completion.

Mentor a Presidential Scholar
We are developing a comprehensive Presidential Scholars Program for our group of 28 top merit scholars. This program will focus on empowering our students through relationships and access to university faculty and community partners.
- Serve as a mentor to a Presidential Scholar and help one of our top merit scholars make the most of the opportunities provided by the Honors College
- Participate as a mentor in academic and cultural events and learning that extends beyond the classroom
- Work with the Honors college in building a community of scholars that comes together regularly for formal and spontaneous gatherings
COMMITTEES

Serve on the Honors College Curriculum Committee
- Generate creative ideas for Honors College curriculum
- Participate in conversations about the future of higher education instruction in Honors Colleges
- Provide feedback on ideas generated by Honors College
- Review proposals for HON 1000 (1 credit seminar) and 3260 (3 credit interdisciplinary seminar)
- Generate ideas for faculty development in honors teaching and learning

Serve on the Honors College Awards Committee
- Develop awards and related criteria to recognize achievement and excellence in areas of scholastic achievement, research, teaching, service, and career accomplishments for students, faculty and alumni
- First year of committee work will be the development of formal awards including solicitation and receipt of nominations, their evaluation and selection, and presentation. Consequent years will focus on receipt of nominations, evaluation and selection, and presentation. Includes Georgia State Faculty Undergraduate Mentoring Award, and Georgia State University Trustees Scholarships and Awards

Serve on the GSURC Advisory Committee
- Be a sounding board for ideas on format, content, judging criteria, promotion, etc.
- One subcommittee will help design and interpret evaluation of conference.
- Meetings occur at most twice per semester, and much work is accomplished via email.

Serve as a member of a National Fellowship and Scholarship Committees
- Participate as a faculty speaker in the Lunch n Learn Program
- Design and present/ lead a 45-minute exploration of a contemporary issue.
- Engage students in discussion of national and/or international implications of topic.
- Identify learning outcome(s) for presentation and discussion.

Serve on a Summer Research Enhancement Program Committee
- Serve on a committee to explore summer research options at Georgia State for current or prospective students (high school or middle school students).

Serve on the Honors College Recruitment Committee
- Work with the Honors College and Admissions Office staff to recruit high-ability students
- Participate in one or more fall recruiting events, and the spring yield events
- Call, or send email or handwritten notes to prospective students interested in your discipline
- Assist with reviewing applications
- Participate in the Presidential Scholar selection process
  - Review written applications, Interview students
- Participate in selection process for university-wide named scholarships such as (Goizueta, Berner, Coca-Cola, Hawks).
  - Review written applications, Interview students

We hope all Honors College Faculty Associates will:
- Nominate students to the Honors College Ambassador Corps
- Promote and attend Honors College Events such as the Founders Lecture Series, Dean’s Colloquia Series, or other events.
- If available assist with judging GSURC posters, oral presentations, and artistic displays (as well as recruiting judges from your respective areas)
- Include GSURC on your course syllabus as an optional or required activity
- When needed we may ask for volunteers to speak at an Honors College Board of Visitors event, Parent’s Council*
- When needed we may ask for volunteers participate as a faculty speaker in the Lunch n Learn Program

*In development
By specific invitation